

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

MARY SMITH,
Plaintiff,

v.

LAS VEGAS METROPOLITAN POLICE
DEPARTMENT, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 2:23-cv-00092-JAD-NJK

ORDER

[Docket No. 31]

Pending before the Court is the parties' proposed discovery plan. Docket No. 31. The presumptively reasonable discovery period is 180 days. Local Rule 26-1(b)(1). Here, however, the parties seek a 270-day discovery period based on "logistical and procedural issues" and the alleged "serious nature of the claims." Docket No. 31 at 2. When a specific showing has been made that established deadlines cannot be met in a particular circumstance, the Court has found good cause for extension. The instant request makes no specific showing at all and, instead, relies on generalized assertions that can be made about all litigation.

Accordingly, the proposed discovery plan is DENIED without prejudice. Docket No. 31. An amended discovery plan must be filed by June 19, 2023. To the extent special scheduling review is sought therein, a specific showing must be made as to why the presumptively reasonable deadlines should not apply based on the particular circumstances of this case. Otherwise, the parties must include the default deadlines, properly calculated from the date of Defendants' answer or first appearance.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 12, 2023

Nancy J. Koppe
United States Magistrate Judge
